Sub: BANNED MARKS OF IDENTIFICATION

It has been observed that some of the candidates appearing in Departmental Promotion Examination use marks of identification on their papers to fulfill their ulterior motives. To discourage this practice, recently, answer papers of the candidates containing such marks of identification were cancelled.

Therefore, the Examination committee in its meeting held on 11.07.2014 under the convenership of General Manager (Training) has decided to widely publish the following definition of marks of identification and ban these marks immediately before the coming Departmental Promotion Examination falling session August, 2014 to make the examination more transparent:

Definition

"Any mark through which a paper setter can retrieve the paper bearing that mark is considered as mark of identification"
